

Worksheet A

Circle the correct option in each case.

1. A: I called him yesterday, but he didn't answer the phone.
B: He must have been / was busy. He always answers his phone.
2. A: Yesterday after the long journey, I couldn't find my keys, and called a locksmith to open the door.
B: What a pity! You may have / must have gotten very tired.
3. It was Jake's off day yesterday. You could have / couldn't have found him in his office.
4. He may not have/may have come by train. It took him a long time to come here.
5. A: A woman opened the door for me. She was probably his wife.
B: He was not married. She can't have / mustn't have been his wife.

Worksheet B

Complete the second sentence so that has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given. You must use between two and five words.

1. It was impossible to finish the exam on time as the questions were really hard. (have)
You test on time because of the hard questions.
2. I'm sure he made a fortune by selling his secret formula. (became)
He by selling his secret formula.
3. I'm not sure, but I saw your book on Jack's desk. (forgotten)
Youbook on Jack's desk.
4. They didn't answer the phone last night. (been)
They at home last night.
5. He looks very sad. She probably refused him to go out. (said)
She his invitation.