

Present Perfect Continuous Tense

Why Present Perfect Continuous Tense ?

We use present perfect continuous tense

Example Sentences

How do we form Present Perfect Continuous tense ?

I	Pos	I _____ in the garden for two hours.
You	Neg	I _____ in the garden for two hours.
We	Que	___ you _____ in the garden for two hours?
They
He	Pos	He _____ in the garden for two hours.
She	Neg	He _____ in the garden for two hours.
It	Que	___ he _____ in the garden for two hours?

(Complete the blanks with the correct form of work.)

Important Notes

Present Perfect Continuous Tense

Why Present Perfect Continuous Tense ?

We use present perfect continuous tense to talk about actions that started in the past and has continued up to now.

How do we form Present Perfect Continuous Tense ?

I You We They	Pos Neg Que	I have been working in the garden for two hours. I haven't been working in the garden for two hours. Have you been working in the garden for two hours?
He She It	Pos Neg Que	He has been working in the garden for two hours. He hasn't been working in the garden for two hours. Has he been working in the garden for two hours?

Example Sentences

Important Notes

- We can also use present perfect continuous to talk about actions that has been completed, but we can see their results in the present.
 - Sarah: Oh, you've got sunburnt!
 - Tom: I've been sunbathing all afternoon.